WHAT IS THE PROGRAM ABOUT?

The Leading Australian Resilient Communities (LARC) 5-day leadership program is about equipping leaders, emerging and existing, in Australia's regional communities to collectively drive the positive changes they want to see in their regions.

WHO IS BEHIND IT?

The combined resources and expertise of the Australian Rural Leadership Foundation (ARLF), Regional Australia Institute (RAI) and leadership development partner the Leaders Institute of South Australia.

WHO IS THE PROGRAM FOR?

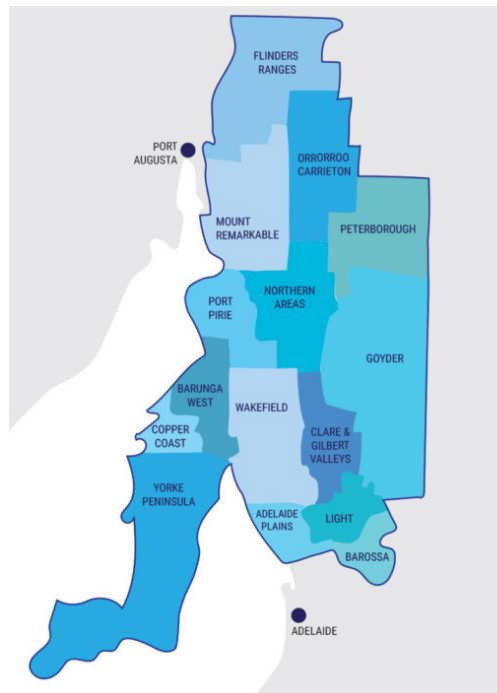

Designed to enhance the inherent strengths in regional communities, with a focus on groups and individuals who are committed and invested in where they live. Participants will be:

- > current and emerging leaders who want to have a positive impact on their region
- > volunteers and employees of Government/community organisations and businesses

- > living and/or working within the local government areas of the Yorke Peninsula and Mid-North region of South Australia

- > over 18 years of age.

HOW MUCH DOES IT COST?

There is no fee for participants. Participants will need to be able to travel to each session location.

HOW DO I APPLY?

Apply online by 4 December 2022.

WHAT ARE THE BENEFITS OF PARTICIPATING?

FOR REGIONAL LEADERS

- > A scholarship that invests in your development in areas with practical, effective applications
- > Connection with diverse individuals and organisations
- > Immersion in a place-based residential leadership experience, offering the time and space to examine what resources and development you need to be most effective
- > Coaching to equip you to meet challenges unique to your roles and sectors
- > Integration within a powerful national network of leaders
- > Access to leadership experts and comprehensive data and insights into your region

FOR REGIONAL COMMUNITIES

- > Growth in the number and diversity of leaders available to support and drive development.
- > An empowered, connected cohort of leaders from across the community
- > Resulting initiatives that reflect consultative, informed identification of challenges and opportunities
- > Cross-pollination from relevant, successful initiatives delivered in other Australian regions.

YOUR REGION'S FUTURE IN YOUR HANDS

"I FOUND THE PROGRAM AN INVALUABLE TOOL TO BOTH DEVELOP MY LEADERSHIP SKILLS, AS WELL AS INFLUENCING CHANGE."

James Laughton
Leaders Institute of SA alumni

WHAT DOES IT INVOLVE?

5-DAY LEADERSHIP PROGRAM

As well as compelling, immediate benefits for regional leaders, LARC builds a foundation for solid practices and strategies that will enable regions to best plan for the future and build healthy, sustainable communities with long-term input into national wellbeing.

DIVERSITY IN PARTICIPANTS

Brings together individuals from different backgrounds, localities, organisations and sectors.

LEADERSHIP CURRICULUM

A unique curriculum, based on the development of six practices designed to guide the development of capabilities to enact leadership.

DATA AND INSIGHTS

Apply local data and insights to deep dive into the challenges and opportunities for your region.

SYSTEM RESILIENCE

Explore the practice of system resilience. Resilience as a word, is possibly overused, however as a practice it has never been more important for regional communities.

LOCAL INITIATIVES

Practical real-world initiatives championed by program participants.*

*LARC does not include funding for these projects.

WEBINARS & COACHING

Access to national thinkers on identified critical regional issues. Participants will receive individual coaching sessions as well as group initiative mentoring.

*on offer in every LARC region
