

BRUSHTAIL POSSUM

The Brushtail Possum feeds on eucalyptus, other leaves, berries and fruit.

They 'safety sleep' and nest in tree hollows. Trees with hollows take over one hundred years to develop, so competition for them can be stiff.

Brushtail Possums are nocturnal. They are awake and feed during the night.

Brushtail Possums are marsupial. They have a pouch where their offspring can grow.

