

Meet Chen, a former international student*

“ The Fair Work Ombudsman helped me work out the right pay for my job.

Chen's situation

- When I was studying, I worked in a family restaurant.
- My housemate told me that I was being underpaid.

What happened next?

- I found information from the Fair Work Ombudsman (FWO) in my own language.
- I used the FWO Pay and Conditions Tool (PACT) to work out the right pay for my job.

How did Chen address it?

- I asked my boss to pay me the minimum wage.
- He was new in Australia and did not know about the work laws. He agreed to pay me the correct amount.
