

Coolum Beach SLSC

Privacy Policy

The protection of personal information is important to Coolum Beach SLSC (CBSLSC). CBSLSC is committed to respecting the right to privacy and the protection of personal information.

This document sets out:

- What personal and sensitive information CBSLSC collects;
- How CBSLSC collects personal and sensitive information;
- How CBSLSC uses or discloses personal and sensitive information
- How individuals can access or seek correction of information held by CBSLSC; and
- Who to contact regarding privacy issues and complaints

By providing your personal information to CBSLSC, you consent to its use, storage and disclosure in accordance with this Privacy Policy.

This Policy provides for the way in which CBSLSC may collect, use, store and disclose information. Third party commercial entities and subsidiaries, whether owned or acting on behalf of CBSLSC or an affiliate or not, may be subject to the same privacy laws and may be governed by their own privacy policies. CBSLSC will always do its utmost to ensure that personal information is respected and protected.

What personal and sensitive information does CBSLSC collect?

• Personal Information

Generally, personal information is information or an opinion (including information or an opinion forming part of a database) from which it is possible to determine someone's identity.

The information collected by a CBSLSC about a particular person will vary depending on the circumstances of collection. It may include, but is not limited to, a person's contact details (name, email and/or postal address, phone number), date of birth, gender, credit card details, driver licence number, passport number, insurance details, employment history, qualifications or communication history with CBSLSC.

Sensitive Information

Sensitive information is a type of personal information that also includes information or an opinion about:

racial or ethnic origin;

political opinions;

membership of a political association, professional or trade association or trade union;

religious beliefs or affiliations or philosophical beliefs;

sexual preferences or practices;

criminal record; or health, genetic information or disability.

If it is reasonably necessary in the circumstances, CBSLSC may also collect sensitive information such as a person's medical history, nationality, their ethnic background or disabilities.

CBSLSC is required by law to obtain consent when collecting sensitive information. CBSLSC will assume consent to the collection of all sensitive information that is provided to it for use in accordance with this Privacy Policy, unless told otherwise.

How does CBSLSC collect personal and sensitive information?

Information may be collected when you:

-  become a member of a surf life saving club, association or other body which is a member or affiliated with CBSLSC;
-  subscribe to any publication of CBSLSC or an CBSLSC Affiliate, including electronic publications;
-  provide details to CBSLSC or an CBSLSC Affiliate in an application form, consent form, survey, feedback form or incident report;

- 🔒 Providing information

Depending on the circumstances, some types of information will be required and others might be optional. If you do not provide some or all of the information requested, this may affect CBSLSC ability to communicate with you or provide the requested products or services.

By not providing requested information, you may jeopardise your ability to participate in programs or competitions or apply for employment or volunteer positions with CBSLSC or a CBSLSC Affiliate. If it is impracticable for CBSLSC to deal with you as a result of you not providing the requested information or consents, CBSLSC may refuse to do so.

🔒 Collection from third parties

CBSLSC or a CBSLSC Affiliate may collect personal information regarding a child from the parent or other responsible person associated with that child.

In some circumstances, CBSLSC collects information from CBSLSC Affiliates or other third parties.

Examples of such third parties could include, without limitation , non-affiliated surf life saving organisations or government and law enforcement bodies.

🔒 Information storage and protection

CBSLSC stores information in different ways, including in paper and electronic form. Much of the information we collect from and about our members is added to our 'Surfguard' database which is hosted by a third party data storage provider. When your information is entered into the Surfguard database, the information may be combined or linked with other information held about you.

Security of personal information is important to CBSLSC. CBSLSC has taken steps to protect the information we hold from misuse, loss, unauthorised access, modification or disclosure. Some of the security measures CBSLSC uses include strict confidentiality requirements of our employees, volunteers, CBSLSC Affiliates and service providers, as well as security measures for system access, and security measures for our website such as firewalls and system encryption.

How does CBSLSC use and disclose personal and sensitive information?

Use

CBSLSC, and third parties to whom we may disclose personal information in accordance with this Privacy Policy, may use your personal information to:

- verify your identity;
- complete background checks;
- research, develop, run, administer and market competitions, programs, activities and other events relating to a variety of surf life saving sports and activities including but not limited to 'Nippers', 'Rescue and Resuscitation' events, Ironman and Ironwoman competitions, emergency management information, membership management, education offerings and organisation, social events, police or other legal agencies for the purposes of medical treatment amongst others;

In some circumstances, personal information may also be disclosed outside of Australia. In such circumstances, CBSLSC will use its best endeavours to ensure such parties are subject to a law, binding scheme or contract which effectively upholds principles for fair handling of the information that are suitably similar to the Australian Privacy Principles.

Direct marketing

CBSLSC will assume consent to use non-sensitive personal information to provide to you better services and marketing purposes (including disclosure of such information to service providers).

Every person whose data is collected by CBSLSC has the option to refuse e-mail, SMS or posted offers. You may do this by updating the direct marketing settings in your user portal/Life Saving Online in SurfGuard, or via the opt-out procedures included in any communication from us (information relating to the option to unsubscribe from those communications may be retained).

If you are still not satisfied at the communication you are receiving, you can also write to CBSLSC Privacy Officer via the contact details set out below.

Other disclosures

In addition, CBSLSC may also disclose personal information:

- 🔒 with your express or implied consent;
 - 🔒 when required or authorised by law;
 - 🔒 to an enforcement body when reasonably necessary; or
 - 🔒 to lessen or prevent a threat to an individual or public health or safety.

Accessing and seeking correction of information held by CBSLSC

CBSLSC will take all reasonable steps to ensure that the personal information it collects, uses or discloses is accurate, complete and up-to-date. However, we rely on the accuracy of personal information as provided to us both directly and indirectly.

CBSLSC also relies on Affiliates and volunteers to enter data and make their best endeavours to ensure data is accurately recorded.

We encourage all users to regularly review and update their personal information on the Surfguard database and via the "members portal" link.

Individuals may also request access to their personal information held by us by making a request via the contact details set out below. We will respond to your request for access within 14 days and endeavour to provide the requested information within 30 days. If you find that the personal information we hold about you is inaccurate, incomplete or out-of-date, please contact us immediately and we will see that it is corrected.

Resolving privacy issues and complaints

Any issues or complaints in relation to the collection, use, disclosure, quality, security of and access to your personal information may be made to our Honorary Secretary at this address:

Honorary Secretary
Coolum Beach Life Saving Club
PO Box 43
