Victoria Police Legacy was founded in 1980, to provide ongoing support for families after the loss of a loved one. Today with an expanded charter, that tradition continues.

Our Role

Victoria Police Legacy is a charitable organisation that provides a range of services to police families across the state, who have suffered the loss of a loved one.

Should a serving or retired Police Officer or Protective Services Officer, or their spouse/partner die, Victoria Police Legacy is there to provide ongoing support to the spouse/partner and children. Funding is provided mainly through fortnightly tax deductible payroll contributions from serving police members. This small regular contribution assists the families of those who have served.

Other funding comes from bequests and tax free donations, often from retired Police Officers or members of the public as an expression of their appreciation for the work done by police in the community.

At Victoria Police Legacy we are committed to meeting the needs of those for whom we care.

Our Process

After notification, Victoria Police Legacy contacts the surviving spouse/partner. A Field Officer then arranges a visit where they explain the support and services offered by Victoria Police Legacy, and answer any questions.

Our Mission

Victoria Police Legacy strives to ensure that no surviving spouse/partner or child of a deceased Police Officer or Protective Services Officer feels forgotten or in need of support. To achieve this, Victoria Police Legacy constantly asks these questions:

- If the Police Officer or Protective Services Officer was alive, what would they want for their family?
- What opportunities would they have tried to give their children?
- How can Victoria Police Legacy assist this family so they remain a part of the police family?
- How can Victoria Police Legacy enhance the lives of this family?
