

Partner Jaime Lumsden Features in The Australian on Cryptocurrency Regulations

As our resident expert on all aspects of credit and AFS licensing requirements, Partner Jaime Lumsden has been featured in The Australian in relation to cryptocurrency trading platforms, and the need for Australian platforms having to set up unregulated entities.

Jaime discusses enforcing local trading laws against overseas investment platforms, as well as AFS licencing.

The article comes after Jaime participated in an industry roundtable held by the Australian Computer Society, where Australia's top technology talent met to discuss the nation's unregulated cryptocurrency market.

Click here to read the full article in The Australian.