

2008 Business Swap Award Winners

Last night the Business Swap International Awards were held at Opal Cove Resort, in Coffs Harbour, NSW. The Awards are designed to celebrate and showcase the many achievements of our members, with over 120 people in attendance the evening was a huge success, the champagne was flowing in celebration of our Award Winners' success and achievements.

Congratulations to the following members:

Business Awards

Employee of the Year sponsored by Redback Solutions

Jessica Evans of Catering by Design; Northern Beaches Business Swap

Jess has an exceptionally thorough understanding of the company she works for. It's goals, how it operates, and how her role in the company affects its operations. She is dedicated and passionate about Catering By Design, and has been described as a vital part of the company and a true asset. She has brilliant organisational ability which has been an integral element that has enabled the company to grow exponentially in the past 2 years.

New Business of the Year sponsored by Red Day Coaching

I Hate My PC - David Moore; Northern Beaches Business Swap

Over the past 2 years, David has carved out a niche in the highly competitive IT industry. Over the past 12 months the company has achieved a 140% growth year on year, which has been a direct result of the positive word of mouth he received from exceptionally happy customers who describe the service provided by David as "professional, efficient, value for money, goes the extra mile, reliable and innovative."

Business of the Year (5 employees or less) sponsored by Sticky Tickets Pty Ltd

Sydney Commercial Kitchens - Neil Willis; Northern Beaches Business Swap

Neil has created a business many would aspire to. With good solid systems in place that allows him the freedom to work on the business - not in the business, clientele that keep coming back year after year, suppliers who will bend backwards to help his team meet their clients needs, and staff members who feel empowered to run the business as if it were their own. Sydney Commercial Kitchens has established itself as the market leader in their industry, creating a multi-million dollar business - all online.
